Lent is a perfect time to take an inventory of your spiritual life

Take advantage of the Lenten season by looking over your life, discovering your strengths and weaknesses.

By Philip Kosloski printed with permission from aleteia.org.

Lent presents to us a unique time of the year when we are invited to look inside ourselves and at our spiritual lives, discovering the good and bad that is there.

If we are to be completely honest with ourselves, we will notice many areas that need growth and improvement. This can often be difficult for us, as we may not always want to see our faults and failings.

However, it is important to take a spiritual inventory during Lent, as it gives us an opportunity to reconcile ourselves with God.

Pope Benedict XVI recommended this practice in his message for Lent in 2011.

[T]he Lenten journey, in which we are invited to contemplate the Mystery of the Cross, is *meant to reproduce within us “the pattern of his death” (Ph 3: 10), so as to effect a deep conversion in our lives; that we may be transformed by the action of the Holy Spirit, like St. Paul on the road to Damascus; that we may firmly orient our existence according to the will of God; that we may be freed of our egoism, overcoming the instinct to dominate others and opening us to the love of Christ. The Lenten period is a favorable time to recognize our weakness and to accept, through a sincere inventory of our life, the renewing Grace of the Sacrament of Penance, and walk resolutely towards Christ.

For some of us, this spiritual inventory will be more difficult to endure, as we already know our weaknesses and fear that more light upon our sins will lead us into despair.

The good news is that God reaches out to us in his mercy, ready to accept us into his loving arms. We need not be afraid of our failings, as God is ready to pick us up and set us on the right path.

God's heartfelt appeal at the beginning of Lent

The following passage is often read on Ash Wednesday and is God's heartfelt appeal to us, inviting us to return to him.

By Philip Kosloski printed with permission from aleteia.org.

These words of the prophet Joel perfectly summarize God's desire for us to turn back towards him.

The Church presents to us a profound passage from the book of Joel in the Old Testament. It perfectly summarizes God's love for us and sets the tone for the rest of Lent.

The following passage is often read on Ash Wednesday and is God's heartfelt appeal to us, inviting us to return to him.

"Yet even now," says the Lord,
"return to me with all your heart,
with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning;
and rend your hearts and not your garments."

Return to the Lord, your God,
for he is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love,
and repents of evil.

Joel 2:12-13

God is a loving Father, waiting patiently for us to return to him after spending our inheritance on worthless things.

As we look forward to 40 days of prayer, fasting and almsgiving, may we look to God and see the love pouring out from him, inviting us into his loving embrace.
